| 9:00 – 10:15 a.m. | BREAKFAST ADDRESS AND EMERGING ISSUE #1
TECHNOLOGY & THE FUTURE OF U.S. NATIONAL SECURITY |
|-------------------|--|

Technology is a defining variable in the American national security calculus. These tools are not only how modern warfare is fought, but they are increasingly the battlefield itself. How does the United States navigate the tensions between free-market economics and the existential challenge of preventing Chinese cyber-enabled espionage? What are the responsibilities of US companies who are the bleeding-edge of technology innovation in an international system that sees these innovations as offering decisive advantage? In short: how can the United States thrive in an era of technological great power competition?

Klon Kitchen
Senior Research Fellow, Technology, National Security, and Science Policy
The Heritage Foundation

10:15 – 10:30 a.m. BREAK

10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. BUDGET SIMULATION & BREAKOUT DISCUSSION

Conference participants will participate in a budget simulation game whereby they are divided into teams and tasked with reaching a budget deal and passing a budget resolution for the upcoming fiscal year. Each participant will draw a card from a stack, and each card will detail the team, role, and individual objectives of that participant. Participants will divide into teams, where they will hear from a Heritage expert, or 'Counsel', on the budget process and their respective teams' role in that process. Each team will also elect a participant to serve as 'leadership' for that team. Leadership conducts negotiations and speaks on behalf of the team before a large group.

Participants will conduct negotiations within and between teams, attempting to reach a deal despite the conflicting interests of each individual and party. There will be time to negotiate and whip votes between policy sessions and outside of the designated budget simulation sessions. The budget resolution will include the total funding for discretionary spending (302a allocation), the topline numbers for each individual appropriations bill (302b allocations), and policy riders. On the final morning of the trip, participants will vote on the budget resolution. It will pass with a simple majority, and participants cannot filibuster.

Today's higher education system is in crisis. American students are $1.6 trillion in student loan debt, the majority of students will not finish college in four years, and many drop out without a degree and struggling to pay off debt. Unfortunately, policies from Washington make these problems worse. While many claim that "free" college is the answer, this will only shift the present problems with higher education onto American taxpayers. Only by encouraging competition and innovation in the higher education sector, and reducing funds coming from Washington, can we see true improvements for students and taxpayers.

BREAKFAST ADDRESS & EMERGING ISSUE #4:

Healthcare has become one of the defining issues of our current debate. Now more than ever, policy proposals such as single-payer universal care, eliminating public options, and privatized care, are drastically different from one another and from the status quo. This panel will review the current state of America's healthcare system and discuss solutions that have been prescribed to fix many of the problems arising from this system, ultimately addressing the question: What do Americans really want in health care?

The driving fuel behind the strength of American families is the free enterprise system. The free market naturally and ceaselessly excels in creating opportunities and prosperity for families in ways that empower them. Government 'family support' programs, on which we spend $1.2 trillion per year, are inherently inefficient, one-size-fits all, and constantly having to adjust and expand in attempt to meet families' needs.

BREAKFAST ADDRESS & EMERGING ISSUE #4:

Healthcare has become one of the defining issues of our current debate. Now more than ever, policy proposals such as single-payer universal care, eliminating public options, and privatized care, are drastically different from one another and from the status quo. This panel will review the current state of America's healthcare system and discuss solutions that have been prescribed to fix many of the problems arising from this system, ultimately addressing the question: What do Americans really want in health care?
